TAX-PAYERS WIN IN MAYORALTY FIGHT

Representative Citizen Answers Angel City Call

Los Angeles' Mayorality troubles have resulted quite happily for the civic welfare of the people of the Angel City. Mayor Harper's resignation left the task of filling the vacancy in the office of chief executive to the City Council, and W. D. Stephens was the man chosen.

Stephens, one of the wealthiest and most prominent men of affairs in the financial world of Southern California, has always declined to run for public office. As president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, he has had large experience in semi-public life. For political preference he never has sought.

Fanatical reform has never found favor with Stephens, but he has had a strong man's disgust for dirty politics or political demagoguery. True reform has always found in the new Mayor a strong champion, but much-raking has received scant encouragement.

Though one of the busiest figures in Los Angeles' financial world, Stephens has found ample time to devote to civic uplifting, and is a member of the leading clubs of the Southland and past grand commander of the Knights Templars in California.
